

Famous Americans – Volume 2

Fun and Exciting stories:

How George Washington Escaped A Trap,
The Landlord's Mistake (Thomas Jefferson),
The Midnight Ride (Paul Revere), The Whistle (Ben Franklin), The Young Scout (Andrew Jackson), and Washington's Last Battle

The following coloring pages accompany our Famous Americans – Volume 2 story CD.

Story 1: How George Washington Escaped A Trap

George Washington was our first president

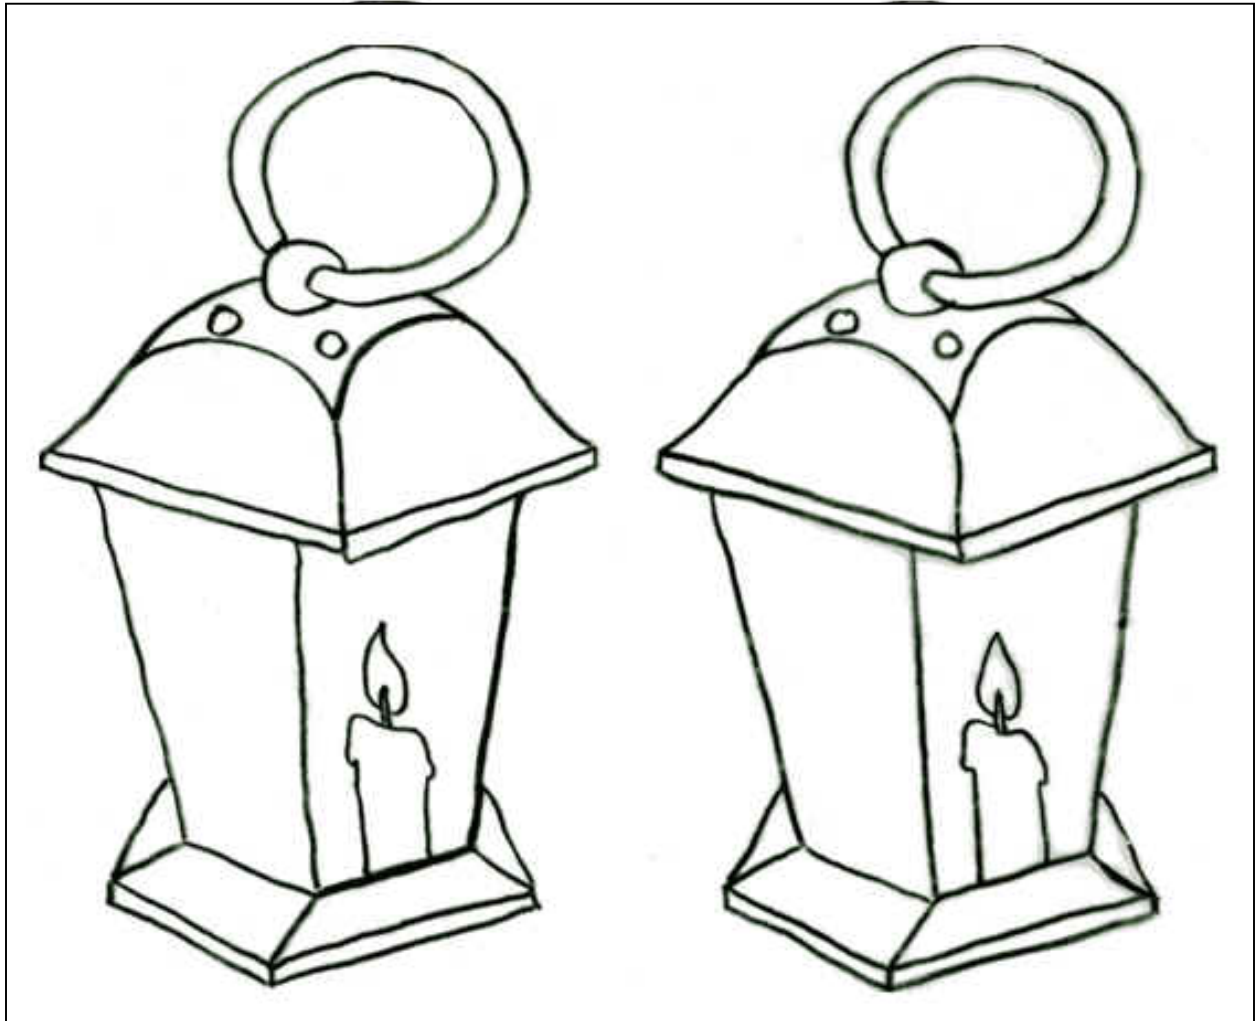

General Cornwallis called Washington a fox because he was so clever.

Story 2: The Landlord's Mistake (Thomas Jefferson)

Thomas Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence, and he was our third president

Story 3: The Midnight Ride (Paul Revere)

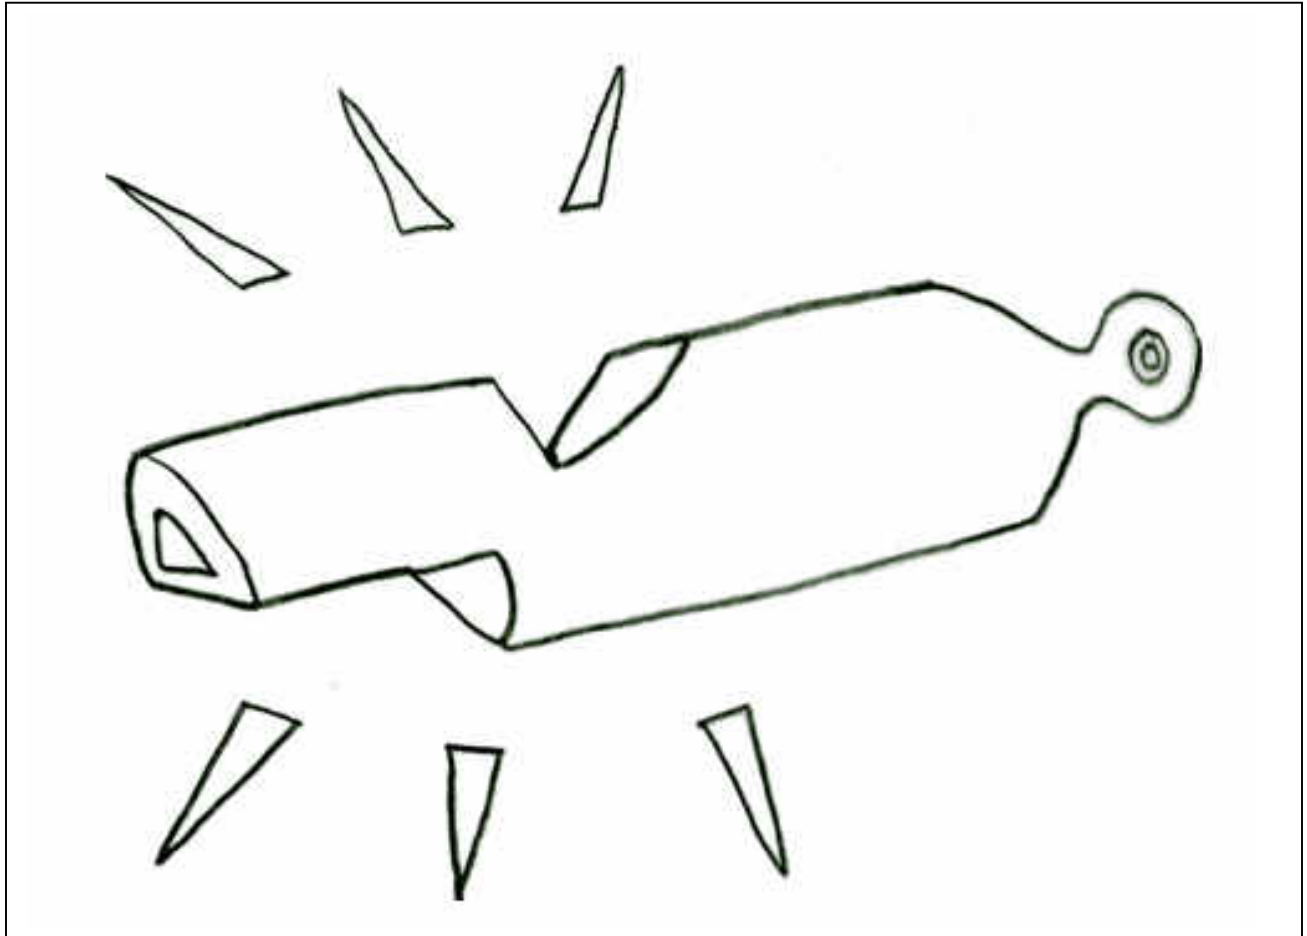

Two lanterns told Paul Revere that the British were coming across the river

Paul Revere alerts the farmers. “The redcoats are coming!”

Story 4: The Whistle (Ben Franklin)

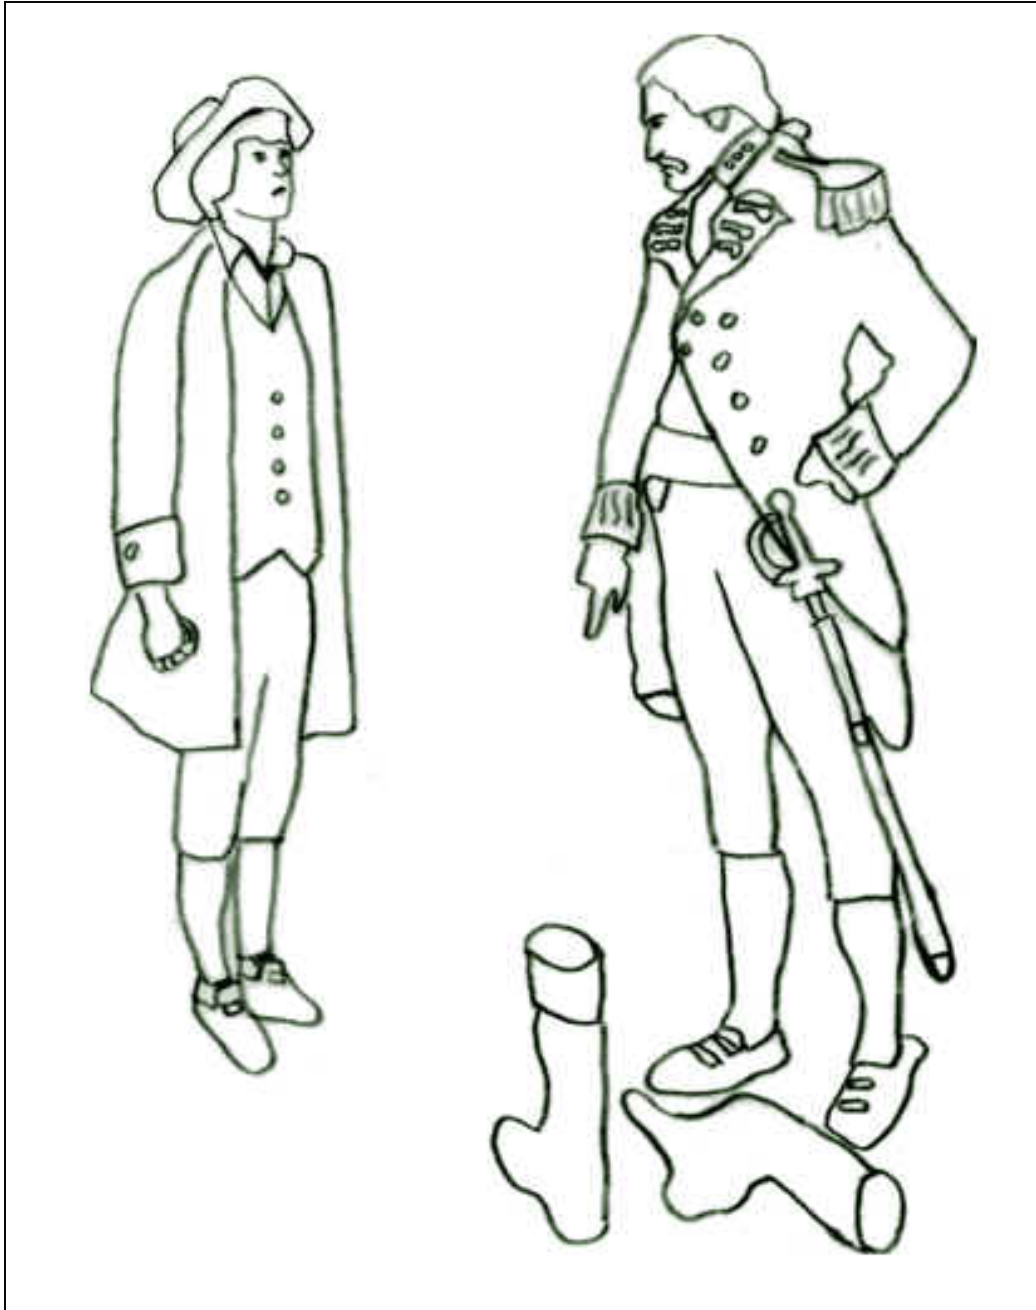

Ben Franklin's whistle

Ben Franklin became a great thinker and a great doer

Story 5: The Young Scout (Andrew Jackson)

The British Captain telling Andy Jackson to clean his boots

Andrew Jackson was our seventh president

Story 6: Washington's Last Battle

George Washington leading his troops